

OCAD UNIVERSITY

TORONTO, CANADA

FOUNDED IN 1876, the university has grown to encompass studies in many forms of art, design and new media. Our learning environment is hands-on, studio based and inter-disciplinary, offering a wide array of production facilities for both traditional and digital creation, and personal attention through small classes. We also offer rich courses in humanities, business practice and science that will equip you with insight and inspiration.

Join a community of creative students who are the artists, designers and media makers of the future!

STUDY IN CANADA'S CULTURAL CAPITAL

Located in the heart of downtown Toronto, OCAD U is centered at the heart of the city's creative corridor. Toronto has one of the largest concentrations of visual artists, designers and entertainment professionals in North America.

THIS IS WHERE YOUR CREATIVE CAREER STARTS

OCAD U supports the professional development of emerging creative talent. With over 400 industry partners, you have access to numerous experiential learning opportunities such as field placements and internships which are available in almost every program. You will also learn from the best - our faculty are all practicing artists and designers in their respective fields.

PORTFOLIO REQUIREMENTS

Your portfolio is an important part of your application and should be a visual representation of who you are.

Most portfolios* require the following:

8 TO 10 ART/DESIGN PIECES

- Show us a variety of works, as well as some that relate to your program.
- Include a brief description of each work.

SKETCHBOOK/PROCESS WORK

- Let us see your process, research, development, experiments & inspiration.

STATEMENT OF INTENT

- 250 to 300 words
- Explain your interest in the program and tell us about you and your work.

*Portfolio requirements may differ for each program. Instead of a portfolio, Visual and Critical Studies (BA) requires a writing sample submission. Details will be emailed once you submit your application.
